DAY TOURS

1 Soweto Day Tour

Outtravel provides shuttles Johannesburg-based, as well as day tours in and around Gauteng. On our Soweto day tour, we take you into a town that grew from a shanty town in 120 years ago at the scene of the world gold discovery known as Egoli. This attraction reflects not only the economic story of South Africa but also post-apartheid history in the making. Sites to visit:

Hector Pieterse Memorial & Museum – The Hector Pieterse Museum is a large museum located in Orlando West, Soweto, South Africa, two blocks away from where Hector Pieterse was shot and killed. The museum is named in his honour. It became one of the first museums in Soweto when it opened on 16 June 2002.

Vilakazi Street – Outtravel will take you to the most famous street in the huge Soweto Township in Johannesburg. Both Nelson Mandela and Archbishop Desmond Tutu lived here- how many places can claim that two Nobel Peace Prize winners lived in the same street. In fact, Tutu as he is more fondly known, still lives here with his wife Leah, and when he's in town he is said to stroll the streets.

Regina Mundi Catholic Church – This church became famous during the apartheid years when it opened its doors to anti-apartheid groups and activists. In those days church services often ended up as political rallies. It continues to play a vital role and remains the spiritual haven for thousands of Sowetan's and it continues to attract tourists from all over the world.
